

TWYLA EDWARDS BIOGRAPHY

Twyla has a Masters in Music Education from Ithaca College and a Bachelors in Music Education from Virginia Commonwealth University. She continued postgraduate work in music at Central Connecticut State University. She taught choral and classroom music for 30 years in the Rome City School District. She retired from teaching at Rome Free Academy in 2015, where she directed the Select Choir, Jazz Voices, and the Mixed Chorus. She performs with the cabaret trio, Broadway Babes and has appeared in local theater and concert productions both as a member of the pit band/orchestra and as a vocalist on stage.