

Andrea Del Piano Falvo, native Roman and graduate of Rome Free Academy, is a classically trained vocalist/pianist with a smooth alto voice. Falvo regularly performs across multiple genres of music including: classical, jazz, pop, and show tunes. Andrea holds both bachelor's and master's degrees from Syracuse University in music and music education with concentrations in voice and piano as well as a Certificate of Advanced Study in school building and district leadership from SUNY Cortland. She was an adjunct jazz piano instructor and co-director of the Syracuse University vocal jazz ensemble, Windjammer.

Andrea was a vocal music teacher in the Rome City School District for eight years before becoming the Director of Fine Arts for the district until 2019 and maintained a private voice and piano studio for many years. She released a self-titled album of jazz standards in 2004 which featured an all-star line-up of Central New York musicians including: Bill DiCosimo, Joe Ferlo, Jimmy Johns, Mike Solazzo, and Dr. David Blask with mastering done by Rick Montalbano. You can see Andrea performing locally as a soloist and as the lead singer/pianist of her group, Encore.

She currently resides in Rome with her husband and daughter and is a Labor Relations Specialist for New York State United Teachers. For more information regarding Andrea's performance schedule, you can follow her on Facebook @AndreaFalvoMusic or on her website: andreafalvomusic.com.
