

Henry (“Hank”) Leo, Jr.

BIO

Hank Leo Jr. has served as the CEO of the YMCA of the Greater Tri-Valley for the past twenty-five years, where he has led the non-profit organization's operations. Throughout his career, Hank has been involved almost exclusively in the non-profit world in a leadership role. Hank has Master's Certificates in Business from Tulane University and Biblical Studies from Liberty University as well as his Bachelor's in Management Science from SUNY Cortland. Leo is the Chairman and Founder of the Non-Profit Consortium, covering 50 agencies in Madison and Oneida Counties, which he started in 2010. His list of accomplishments is as follows:

Central New York Business Journal Non-Profit Career Achievement Award, 2020
Greater Oneida Chamber of Commerce Community Service Award
Oneida Rotary Club Roses to the Living Award
Oneida Rotary Club Bill Fariel Vocational Award
Paul Harris Fellow, Rotary International
Cancer Screening Champion, Oneida County Health Department, 2017
NCMEC Ride For Missing Children, rider, designated rider, 2011-2015
USA Archery Level 2 Trainer

Leo has also served as a board member of the Oneida City School District Board of Education, the Oneida Rotary Club, (President), Oneida Healthcare (Secretary), Alliance of NYS YMCAs, (Secretary and Treasurer), COAD For Madison County (Chairman), and Board President of the Greater Oneida Chamber of Commerce.

Leo is also an award-winning author of 6 nationally published books:

“Home When the Streetlights Come On”
“God Called”
“In Your Hands”
“Return To Allen Park”
“The Toolbox”
“Just Be Held” (Honorable Mention, New York Book Festival, 2019)

Hank resides in Oneida, NY, is married to his wife Pauline and has two children and two grandchildren.