In George's introduction to the stage he was in the 4th grade. He played the little lame boy in a high school production of the "Pied Piper of Hamelin". In high school he was in "Oliver", "The Man of La Mancha", and he was Freddy Emsford Hill in "My Fair Lady". After high school he went to college and majored in speech and musical theatre. George left school after one year and joined the U.S. Navy. During his 22 years in the military George was involved in several talent shows on ships and in the local communities where he was stationed.

George considers himself to be a character actor portraying , on the Ilion Little Theatre stage, such rolls as "Snedski the shepherd" in "Fools", "Jonny Cantone" in "The 1940's Radio Hour", "Blackbeard the pirate" in "Ghost Story", "Uncle Bernie" in "A Christmas Spirit" , "Piney" in "A Bad Year for Tomatoes" and the sheriff in "The Trip to Bountiful". He has been involved with several other shows as an actor, director, producer, or set designer/builder. His most recent appearance on the ILT stage was Kris Kringle in "Miracle on 34th Street. George is on the board of directors as a "Member at Large" for The Ilion Little Theatre Club. He has been an actor, director, producer, set builder, and has operated lights and sound for the club.

The ilion little theatre is ideal for him. He loves the quaint 69 seat theatre and the historic setting. It is a great place to get involved with theatre.
